

Spiritual Care Day

2017

"Hospitality: Cultivating Inclusion"

Thursday, Oct. 26

8 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Marley Education Center at Crouse Hospital

Hospitality: Cultivating Inclusion

$30 per person, please register here: <http://bit.ly/2h4R8YH>

Keynote Speaker: Keith A. Alford, PhD, ACSW, Syracuse University School of Social Work Chair and Graduate Director. Dr. Alford's research and teaching areas include child welfare, family mental health, multiculturalism, and culturally specific human service intervention.

Two Workshops: Cultivating Inclusion: Stories from the Edges, in which members of marginalized communities help us identify ways to make health care more inclusive of and responsive to their needs; and Radical Hospitality: The Sanctuary Church in which leaders of All Saints Church explain the process they have used that has led to designating All Saints a Sanctuary Church.

Spiritual Care Day provides opportunities for organizations and institutions of all kinds to recognize the spiritual caregivers in their midst and the ministry these caregivers provide.

All spiritual care givers at hospitals, correctional facilities, congregations, nursing homes, academic institutions, etc. are welcome!

Interpreters for the Deaf will be present.

For questions, please call the Rev. Gracious Moyo, InterFaith Works InterFaith Initiatives Director, at 315-449-3552, ext. 111.
