Refugees Welcome
Dear ________________________________,

As your constituent, I strongly oppose the policies that are reducing the number of refugee resettlements in the U.S. Our country is better than this. I urge you to do everything within your power to see that the U.S. commits the federal resources required to resettle at least 75,000 refugees in the coming fiscal year.

Sincerely,

_______________________________________
(name)

_______________________________________
(address)

_______________________________________
(city, state, ZIP code)